

Tobacco Strategist (TS-2021)
Atlanta, GA (remote)

Do you have experience with research project management and communication projects? Content knowledge in tobacco or drug abuse prevention? Want to see the results of your work roll out on a public scale? Does the thought of working for an all-remote, non-bureaucratic small private company with great work/life balance sound refreshing?

What You Will Do:

In this role you will exercise your expertise to:

- Support the development and execution of strategy for a national prevention media campaign
- Document the scientific justification for creative executions
- Gather information and help to prepare materials for inclusion in programs and reports
- Track project deadlines, timelines, and deliverables for a fast-paced, client-focused, interconnected set of projects
- Execute nationally representative research studies with a strong focus on applied findings and human subjects protections
- Exercise your energy and creativity to work with a dynamic team to support client requests

What You Will Bring?

Masters' degree in social science or Bachelors' degree with 1-3 years social science research and project experience. Impeccable attention to detail and exceptional interpersonal skills will be put to good use.

Who We Are:

KDH Research & Communication provides timely dissemination of new research in the public and social services fields. Our mission is to produce and disseminate creative, science-based programs that improve the health and well-being of the nation's youth, family, and communities.

KDHRC offers flexible scheduling, competitive compensation and benefits, strong work/life balance and wellness programs, and the opportunity to directly support the owners of the business.

How to Apply:

Send your resume and a cover letter to careers@kdhrc.com. Please include the position title, position number, and favorite color in the email subject line. We will not review resumes without cover letters or resumes with generic cover letters. KDHRC will consider all qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, gender, or national origin. No telephone calls please.
